Easter

THURSDAY, 6TH APRIL

Maundy Thursday herbal soup

We highly recommend this invigorating soup. It is prepared by our South Tyrolean Chef de Cuisine Egon using nine different wild herbs and remembering an old Germanic custom.

FRIDAY, 7TH APRIL

The traditional painting of easter eggs

4.00 pm: Since pre-Christian times red eggs are the symbol of fertility. Our modern alchemist Renate explains the symbolism and the different traditions of Easter eggs and shows you how to color eggs with flowers and plant brews. We kindly ask for a registration.

A refined fish menu

Following the old fasting tradition, this evening chef Egon Heiss puts the focus on fish.

SATURDAY, 8TH APRIL

The Easter light

5.00 pm: We invite you to decorate, with our healing expert Renate, your personal Easter candle in the garden of our castle nearby. Together we will light the candles in the chapel of the castle. We kindly ask for a registration.

SUNDAY, 9TH APRIL

Easter breakfast

We prepare an opulent Easter buffet with the traditional Easter ham, freshly grated horseradish with apple and aromatic Easter bread. In addition we show you our tradition of the “Goggelen pecken”.

Easter gala dinner

The Easter lamb plays the main role in our elegant 5-course dinner in the Restaurant Orangerie.
